

Painting Unit

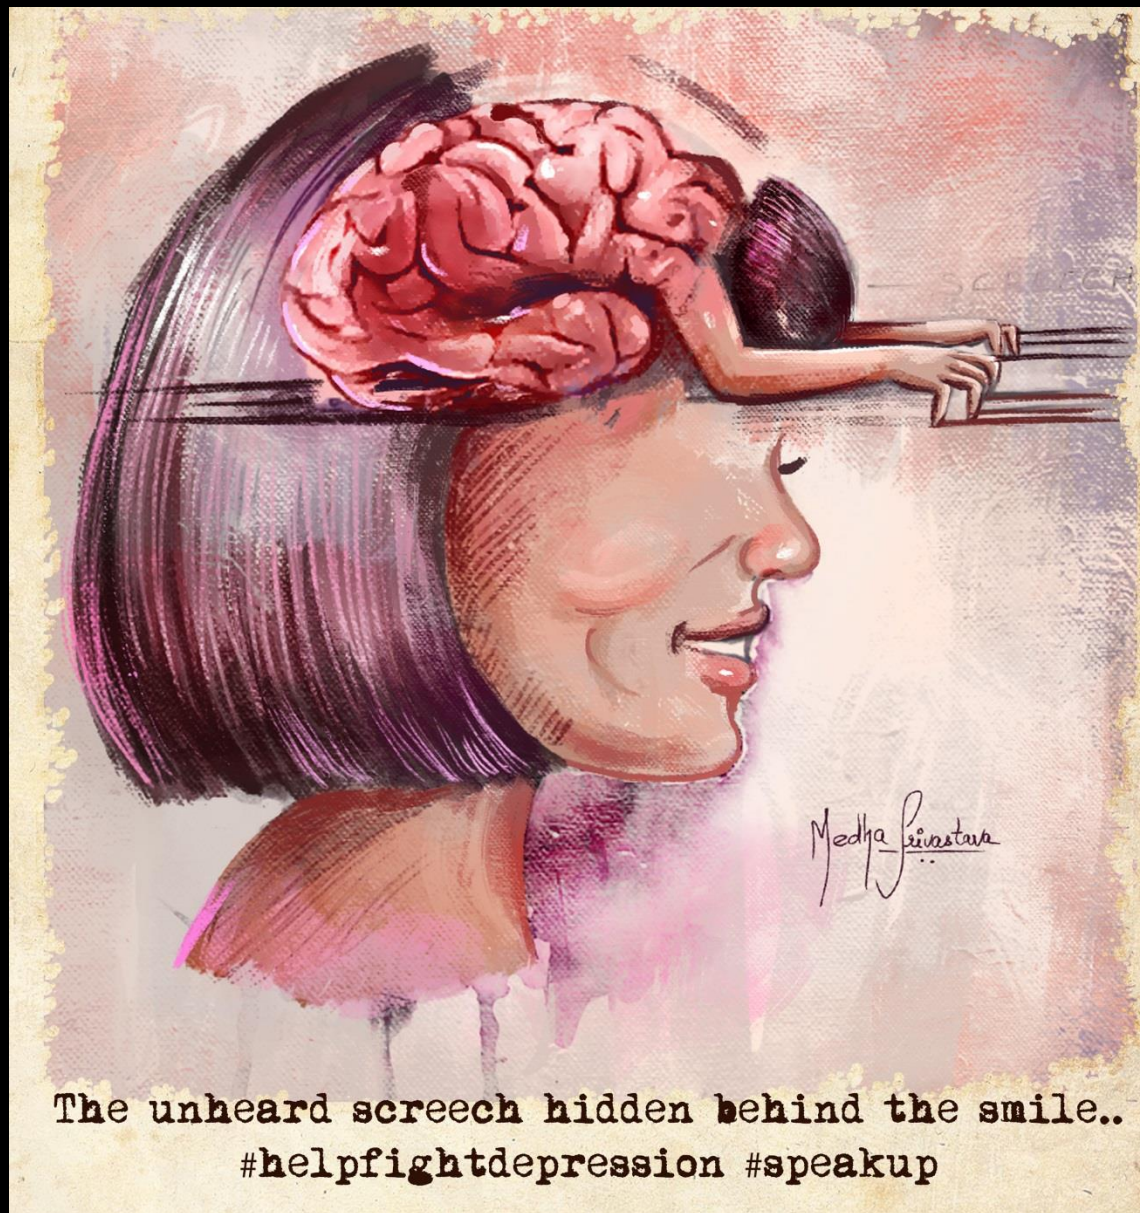

AVI4M

For the painting unit, you will use acrylics on canvas to create 1-2 major art works based on a social justice issue from the list below.

Social Consciousness:

- Urban Issues- Homeless, Gangs, Drugs, Prostitution, Poverty, Class Struggles, Education, Police Brutality, Crime, Rich & Poor Gap
- Health Issues- AIDS, Abortion, Cancer, Mental Illness
- Family Issues- Divorce, Abuse, Stress, Single-Parent Homes
- Discrimination- Racism, Ageism, Gender Bias, the Glass Ceiling, Sweat Shops
- Environmental Issues- Famine, Drought, Pollution, Overpopulation, Destruction of the Rainforest, Endangered Species, Deforestation, Animal Agriculture, Climate Change
- Political Issues- Gun Control, Abortion, the Economy, Corruption
- Teen Issues- Drinking, Drugs, Pressure, Suicide, Stress, Gangs, Violence, Social media
- Genocide
- Holocaust
- Rape
- Murder
- Human Rights Violations
- Refugees
- Terrorism
- Innocent Casualties

	Criteria	Mark
FOUNDATIONS Studio work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You came to class prepared - You put forth a consistent effort - You met the deadline - You used class time well - You asked for advice when needed - You used studio supplies with care - You cleaned up after using supplies - You followed instructions and the creative process 	/20
CREATING Technique/Design/ Composition/ Elements and Principles/Quality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Your image is accurately drawn out - You showed an understanding of good technique (building colours and working in layers) - Your composition is interesting and successful - You showed an awareness for elements and principles of design - The quality of your work is impeccable - Your art is unique and creative and not simply a copy of artwork found online - You have met all the criteria 	/50
REFLECTING Written/Oral Critique	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To be discussed 	/30

Puppets Of Poverty.
#stopchildlabour #cutthestrings

